

RULES AND REGULATIONS -- USE OF CLUB PROPERTY

BULLETIN BOARDS

The bulletin boards situated in the Colony, Village, and Highlands are for the use of Cape George Colony Club members only. They are solely for the purpose of informing members of actions of the Board of Trustees, Committee reports, upcoming events, and general information. These are defined as follows:

- Board of Trustees: Official notices from the Board of Trustees.
- Committee Notices: These notices will include, but not be limited to: committee meetings, potlucks, dinners, swimming schedules, hiking schedules, classes, or any other activity that would involve Cape George members.
- General Information: Notices of classes or shows (including, but not limited to ceramics, art, sewing, gardening, or any other subject of membership interest); crafts, hobbies, sporting events, golf tournaments, fishing derbies, or other similar scheduled events which are of interest to our members.
- Other: Members may place classified ads on the bulletin boards with advance approval from the office required. Such ads must be removed when items are no longer available. The General Manager may also approve on a case by case basis community announcements where the information may be of value to the membership.

Bulletin Board Controls:

- All articles and notices to be placed on the bulletin boards must have a stamp of approval and the date from the office before posting. When the office is closed, members of the Board of Trustees can approve and date article before posting.
- The following types of information are inappropriate and will not be approved: Material from organizations that are political, religious, or controversial, etc.; articles which will influence the judgment of our members; any information regarding disputes between members of Cape George Colony Club, and advertisement for commercial services or products.

It is the responsibility of all members using the bulletin boards to post their information in a tidy manner to keep our boards from becoming cluttered. Further, it is the member's responsibility to remove all posted material when it is outdated or no longer relevant.

Approved at the Board of Trustees Meeting dated: March 12, 2009
